Friendly Meeting Commemorating Colonel Stanislav Rejthar

On the morning of Sunday, 5th November 2017, after regular worship, a friendly meeting in memory of heroic World War II pilot and member of the congregation of Vršovice Colonel Ing. Stanislav Rejthar (1911–1977) took place in the assembly hall of the Congregation of the Evangelical Church of Czech Brethren in Prague-Vršovice.

His life story can be read in Rejthar's autobiography Good Soldiers Have Fallen... From Memories of a War Pilot, which was arranged after 1990 by his wife Vlasta Rejtharová, MA (Oxon.), and his daughter PhDr. Olga Bezděková Rejtharová. The third, significantly supplemented edition was released in 2011.

The life story of a Czechoslovak army officer who fought on the Western Front against Nazi occupiers, was a pilot of the 313th RAF fighter squadron, participated in the Slovak National Uprising in 1944 and then fought until the end of the war as a partisan in the Slovak mountains, is described in the book in detail. After 1948, he and his entire family were persecuted by the Communist regime.

PhDr. Olga Bezděková Rejtharová edited one more book from the life of her family in 2012, namely the War Diaries of her aunt, her mother's sister Olga Horníčková Nováková.

With great interest, we listened to a narration by PhDr. Olga Bezděková Rejtharová about her father, her mother Vlasta and the entire family at the friendly meeting at the Congregation of Vršovice. She brought a precious visitor, her aunt Olga Horníčková Nováková, who has lived in Canada since she was exiled and who recently visited the Czech Republic. The narration was also enriched by her personal memories, remembrances presented admirably and brilliantly by a woman who, despite her age of 95, can expound the events of her youth in detail with precision, elegance and in gorgeous Czech.

Christmas Concert of the School of Law of Charles University in Prague

Every year in Advent, the School of Law of Charles University in Prague organizes a festive Christmas concert for its teachers, students and employees, and their families and friends, in the main hall of Karolinum in Prague.

The traditional Christmas concert took place this year on 7th December 2017. At 7 p. m., the whole main hall of Karolinum was filled to the last place. After a respectable organ introduction, the concert was commenced by the Dean of the School of Law, Professor JUDr. Jan Kuklík, DrSc., re-elected this year.

In his speech, he hoped that the experience of beautiful music in a pleasant environment would help everyone forget the everyday worries and the difficult political situation in our country for a while, and would refresh them for further scientific, pedagogical and intellectual work. In the end, he thanked all those who contributed to the preparation of the evening, especially Associate Professor JUDr. Věra Štangová, CSc., and those who supported the evening, in particular the Charles University in Prague and the attorney's office Císař, Česka, Smutný.

A rich concert followed, arranged by the Virtuosi di Praga orchestra, led by Oldřich Vlček, who lit the candles on the advent wreath and explained their symbolism immediately after the dean's speech. The solos were performed by Jiří Emmer (organ) and Lukáš Pavlíček (oboe). Famous opera arias were presented by Michaela Katráková (soprano), soloist of the Semperoper Dresden Jiří Rajniš (baritone), 10-year-old Anežka Povolná (with the participation of a string orchestra and flute) and several other singers.

The culmination of the whole evening was the moment when members of the 40-member Mixed Choir of Milevsko stood gradually in the auditorium during the Christmas chant Adeste fideles, walked to the front part of the graduation ceremony hall of Karolinum and sang together about 12 of the best-known Czech Christmas carols, encouraging everyone present to join. Eventually, the whole hall stood, as every year, and all sang four verses of the Czech and Slovak Christmas hymn 'Christ was born the Lord'.

After the concert, the evening continued with the entertainment of several hundred participants in the Gothic ground floor halls of Karolinum.
